Charles Little is a motion picture editor with over a decade of experience and a diverse range of expertise. His accolades include a Best Editing Award at the fifth annual Elevate Film Festival which challenged international filmmakers to create works of social and environmental importance. Charles directed and edited a series of short brand films for ad agency Gertude, Inc. which earned him a bronze Telly Award. Charles delivered a masterful combination of picture editing and visual effects design on Ronnie Butler, Jr.'s award-winning sociopolitical satire 'The Photographs of Your Junk (Will Be Publicized)' before contributing as an additional film editor on Robert May's critically acclaimed documentary 'Kids For Cash' in 2013. In 2019, Charles cut three episodes of FOX's high profile action drama procedural '9-1-1 Lone Star' (created by Ryan Murphy, Brad Falchuk & Tim Minear) which included the series finale. Charles' credits also include unscripted series for networks like Showtime, Discovery, NatGeo and VH1; including 'Ru Paul's Drag Race' and MTV Networks' '1 World Hip-Hop Championship' where Charles was Editor, Director and Executive Producer. Charles is an active member in multiple post-production groups promoting diversity and advancement within the film and television industry; and is a proud member of the Motion Picture Editor's Guild (I.A.T.S.E. Local 700). Charles was born in Chicago, raised between Chicago and Minneapolis and served two Pacific WestPac tours in the United States Navy before receiving an honorable discharge to pursue a career in the entertainment arts. Charles is based in Los Angeles.
